Sir:

INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.97(b)

Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. §§1.56 and 1.97(b), applicants bring to the Examiner's attention the documents listed on attached Form PTO-1449. Copies of the listed documents are attached. Applicants respectfully request that the Examiner consider the documents listed on attached Form PTO-1449 and indicate that they were considered by making an appropriate notation on this form.

This Information Disclosure Statement is being filed with the above-referenced application.

The following is a concise statement of relevance of the non-English language documents:

1. Japanese patent application publication no. 11-126424 discloses an apparatus for processing acoustic signals. The apparatus has audio function of reproducing acoustic signals and displays the acoustic signals. The relevance of this document is also discussed at pages 1-2 of the specification of the present application.

2. Japanese patent application publication no. 2000-347696 discloses an apparatus for reproducing audio data. The relevance of this document is also discussed at page 2 of the specification of the present application.

3. Japanese patent application publication no. 2002-16672 discloses a communications terminal that has a vibrator. The vibrator can vibrate the housing of the apparatus at amplitude changing with the music that informs the user of the arrival of a call. The relevance of this document is also discussed at pages 2-3 of the specification of the present application.

This submission does not represent that a search has been made or that no better art exists and does not constitute an admission that each or all of the listed documents are material or constitute "prior art." If the Examiner applies any of the documents as prior art against any claim in the application and applicants determine that the cited documents do not constitute "prior art" under United States law, applicants reserve the right to present to the Office the relevant facts and law regarding the appropriate status of such documents. Applicants further reserve the right to take appropriate action to establish the patentability of the disclosed invention over the listed documents, should one or more of the documents be applied against the claims of the present application.
